IRVINGTON.

Corn about all planted.
Wheat is looking very well.

Mr. Frank Heywood has moved into his new house.

Ken Wathen shipped a car load of fine hog last week.

Hon. Ties Jolly was in town last week on his way to Frankfort.

Mr. J. M. Jolly sold his fine mare to Col. J. C. Fawcett, price $200.

Misses Ida Adams and Edith Coleman are visiting Mrs. Henry Scott.

Mrs. Helen and son, DeLane, are visiting at the Washington place.

Our Sunday-school is progressing finely; have sixty pupils enrolled.

Mr. Marshall Morley, of Louisville, spent several days with us last week.

Mr. Harry Bell, of Guston, was among the visitors at the Irvington Sunday-school on Sunday.

Miss Rea Washington is expected to leave on an extended visit to relatives in Louisville this week.

Mr. Rold, Hendrick lost his house and all its contents last week by fire. Loss $3,000, insurance $1,200.

Mrs. Annie Hornum bought of D. S. Henry twenty-three head of fine steers, averaging 1000 pounds, at 4 cents.

Messrs. Jolly & Bennett have let contract to Jas. Freeman for two dwelling houses to be occupied by the two Messrs. Boyd.

Messrs. Maggie and Jennie Dean with Bro. Reed, of Gooden paid Mrs. Bennett a short visit on their return from a trip to Louisville.

The Messrs. Boyd have the foundation of their mill completed, the framing trim and all ready and will be raised the coming week.

Mr. Amos Skillman, of Webster, spent Saturday in our city. We were glad to see him and hope to see or hear more of him in the future.

For tobacco fertilizers, Deering blades and mowers, or any kind of goods, carts or carriages call on R. M. Jolly; he is selling them at Wheeler prices.

Mr. Henry Washington is spending several months with us, improving his health. Henry is an enterprising fellow, and is going to have a nice place in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams will entertain the young ladies of the neighborhood on next Saturday. A fishing party is also anticipated and the young folks are delighted for all know the genuine pleasure the host, with his charming wife affords their guests on such occasions.

We once saw in the News that a fellow by the name of Bob, of Webster, said he came up to Irvington to see the new mill and that we had a splendid site, but there was no dam at the mill site and no mill by a dam-site. We now invite Bob to see us again and we will show him the dam-site and a fine Rock Mill by a big dam-site.

Messrs. Tonic—The old time, reliable remedy for Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, etc., earned by thirty years' success. You can depend upon it. Try it! Darrow's have it.

BURAS.

Everybody playing even.
People are busy to tell us any news.

Buras has no dials, gossips or loungers. Many famous folks will not writing on wash day.

Hogs here and in the vicinage are dying with cholera.

George Galloway is away from home doing stone work.

Born. A girl, at Allie Boddin's. The fourth. Father happy.

Tobacco plants are scarce, the hogs having got in their work.

Some of our boys, have been fishing and report pleasure and profit gaining for the many fish.

Buras is organizing a new ball club. Look out Center, Hardinsburg and all you know! We're some when aroused and started.

What is looking fine. The Farmers' Union quoted Kentucky recently as having 75 per cent. of the usual output at this time.

It is hardly fair for a girl to call her few "grandpas" because he happens to be a few years older than she. Will one of our ladies please note this?

We are informed that Dick Pumphrey has the contract to repair Fairview and that the house will be ready for service the last Sunday in this month.

"We respect you" said the flies to the dishes when they made it necessary to leave the room to wipe them off the second time before dinner.

Mrs. Eliza Bruner, who has been several miles with her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Pile, passed through here this week enroute to her old home near Cass.

A smart young man asks us if a road-bede is the proper one for a person who walks in his sleep. We won't let on anything to the public, hence we authoritatively say no.

Myer's store house, when finished is going to be a whopper and will doubtless be the largest village store in the county.

Black, pink and enterprise will get there every time. If all of them are we are proud of them.

The mails now are flooded with circulars from various "reputable" (publishers) who are offering "the only true and authentic history of Stanley in Africa."

Nearly all the newspapers insert the advertisements of such houses, and in some places agents are at work believing, presumably, that they have the genuine work authorized by Stanley. Let no one dupe you into buying any of these bogus publications. Scrubbers of New York, are the publishers of "In Darkest Africa" by Stanley, and it cannot be had in anything but two volumes. This is written to keep some one from imposing on you to the amount of four or five dollars for some cheap, unreliable, bogus volumes.

We are indebted to the affable and accomplished Wm. Bell and the pleasant Mr. Frank Beard, both of the County Clerk's office for the following list of names, all of which are exempted from paying taxes for the year 1900, and 1901:

Death of Little Claude Penrod.

Died in this city, April 29th, little Claude, son of Pastor W. K. Penrod, after a few days of painful illness which he bore with great fortitude for one so young. To our beloved pastor and his wife we extend our heartfelt sympathy in the loss of their darling boy. He was full of promise to them, but their loss is his gain, and their resignation to the will of God is as sweet as religion. Funeral services were held on the 30th by Rev. W. C. Housh, after which his remains were taken to the cemetery and buried.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the Baptist Sunday-school on the 4th inst., Messrs. S. P. Conrad, C. E. Lightfoot and J. E. Keith were appointed a committee to draft resolutions appropriate to the demise of little Claude Penrod. The committee does not propose any funeral, for the child was but little known to us; we only in part wish to pay our tribute of respect to the departed and our love for his and sister Penrod; therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of little Claude Penrod the Sunday-school has lost one of its pupils just as he began to learn his lessons.

Resolved, That though his place is vacant here, we are assured that he fills one where he bears no disease, no pain, no chilling winds nor poisonous breath. Jesus said, "Suffer little children to come unto me," etc.

Resolved, That we hereby tender our sympathy to the bereaved parents in their affliction, and offer this solace, though he can not return to them, they can go to him.

S. P. Conrad,
C. E. Lightfoot,
J. E. Keith.

"Canst thou day that thou dost dwell in Vices from thy hand no evil action dost."

For renovating the system, eliminating all poisons from the blood, whether of scrofulous or malarial origin, S. S. S. has won the name of "Golden Liquid." To woman it imparts freshness of complexion, beauty of form and elasticity of step. This is the long record of a purely vegetable remedy whose fame is widespread over two continents; which has retained its popularity for over half a century, its demand increasing at home, and orders coming for it where the English tongue is never spoken. This speaks volumes for its efficacy.

Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) is not a nostrum of a brief day's existence, such as spring up like the mushroom, but thousands of testimonials from men, women, and even reputable physicians attest its solid worth as a remedial agent, and keep it at the front. What convincing evidence further can the afflicted world demand?

Letter from South Carolina.

SOCIETY HILL, S. C., May 20, 1890.

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS: The warm days have set in here. The leaves on the trees are fully grown and the shades are refreshing, especially in the middle of the day. Rice and oats are headed out and in bloom. The wheat will be a failure in this section.

I am farming here on a larger scale than in your section of the country. Five hundred acres of oats belonging to one farm is a sight I never beheld before. Accompanied by my brother, I yesterday visited two miles from the village and saw a machine planting tobacco. This is a sight I never expected to see, but it does it, and does it well. The machine is pretty much like a driver's own planter, but smaller and lower. The driver sits in front; in his rear is a barrel to carry water. A pipe is connected with the barrel and is worked by a lever. It makes a revolution and saturates the ground about a foot underneath the surface. There are two seats in the rear occupied by two small negroes, and they alternately place the tobacco in a little drill and it presses the dirt to the plant closely, but it does not set the plants in the ground as tightly as hands usually do the old way. The weather is so dry the machine doesn't do good work as it is in good condition. It would not work in stumps. Some parties say there is three times as much money in tobacco here as there is in cotton. One man says he made $2000 on thirty acres of tobacco last year. It is cured up by fire.

The Democrats are having a little family row threatening a division, and if they divide, it is predicted the Republicans will get possession of the State again.

Respectfully,

S. K. C.

Happy Hoosiers.

Win Timmons, Postmaster of Daviess, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicine combined, for that had been feeling ailing from kidney and liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman of same place says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver medicine, make me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is the best thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had new lease of life." Only 50c a bottle, at G. W. Short, Cloverport, Ky., and J. A. Witt's, Hardinsburg, Ky.

A section of black "cravfish" land in north Logan county has turned out to be an inexhaustible bed of asphaltum, and great excitement prevails. One 300 acre farm hereof sold at $6000 has been sold for $10,000 to an eastern company of capitalists. South Kentuckian.

"C. C. C. Certain Kill Cure," the most pleasant to take of all Fever and Ague Remedies. Warranted to cure Chills and Fever. Sold by G. W. Short.

This is bad weather for the farmers, Mr. W. J. Dean, Jr., is in Louisville this week.

Miss Bettie Webb is in Louisville this week, shopping.

Miss Jennie and Maggie Dean have returned from Louisville.

Miss Carrie Owen contemplates a visit to Harbington soon.

Mr. Will Dean made a flying visit to Irvington last Sunday.

Messrs. Dick Owen and Jesse Howard have returned from the mountains.

We wish the Rockvale correspondent would "let up" on the McGinty gag.

Miss Nannie Green, of Louisville, will soon take charge of the school at this place.

Mr. Tom Butler, of Shreve, Ky., paid another visit to prospective relatives last Saturday and Sunday.

There was no preaching Sunday. Brother Reid being detained at Lancaster, Ky., on account of the illness of his mother.

Mr. Ernest Robertson went to Harbington last Wednesday to lay his case before the court. We hope the Judge will be merciful.

The pond party of May 3d, at Mr. Henry Dean's, was quite a success. The tables groaned beneath their weight of good things and were beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers and the spacious dining hall was a mass of evergreens. The whole house was illuminated, and Miss Nellie, Nellie and Lou made everyone feel welcome by their usual genial hospitality. The young ladies were all elegantly attired. Below we give a description of the costumes:

Miss Nellie Dean, black silk, print lace, garnet ornaments; Nellie Dean, black lace, deodote, diamonds and natural flowers; Lou Dean, light blue satin, cream lace, overalls, natural flowers; Nannie Owen, pearl grey silk and lace, overalls, natural flowers; Ella Owen, black velvet with burnt rose trimming, diamond ornaments; Carrie Owen brown and old gold silk, natural flowers; Lattie Moorman, gold blue satin, white flowers; Carrie Moorman, cream silk, ribbon and flowers; Mattie Fekridge, royal purple velvet, cream lace overalls; Annette Dean, cream serge, topaz ornaments, natural flowers; Nellie Dean, sea foam green and cream silk, ribbons and flowers; Maggie Dean, cream satin and lace, deodote, diamonds and pink rose buds; Lella Robertson, Nile green satin and natural flowers; Elma Robertson, pink satin, cream lace overalls, pearls; Annie Dean, black lace, pink roses, diamonds. The following gentlemen were present: Messrs. Will and Harry Dean, Tom Butler, Tom and Eugene Robertson, Ernest and Victor Robertson, John and Charlie Dean, John Payne, George Abernathy, Vernon Moorman, Jesse and Joe Howard, Jim Dean, Dick and Jesse Owen, Chas. Blund, Clark and John Owen, Chas. Owen.

More anon.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Pleasant Hill, Ill., makes the statement that she caught a cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found it relieved her from first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was.

—Tree trial bottles of this Great Discovery at G. W. Short's, Cloverport, Ky., and J. A. Witt's, Hardinsburg, Ky.

Does It Pay to Get Mad and Stop Your Paper?

Once upon a time a certain man got mad with the editor and stopped his paper. The next week he sold his corn at four cents below the market price. Then his property was sold for taxes because he didn't read the sheriff's sales. He was arrested and fined eight dollars for hunting on Sun day simply because he did not know it was Sunday, and he paid three dollars for a lot of ferretpoles that had been advertised for two weeks, and the public caution not to negotiate them. He then paid a big bribe man, with a foot like a large house, to kick him and he paid four years' subscription in advance, and the editor signed an agreement to knock him down and rob him if he ever ordered his paper stopped again. Yank Hill County Herald.

Robertson & Jones, Jonesboro, Ark., write: "C. C. C. Certain Kill Cure gives universal satisfaction." Pleasant to take. No cure no pay. Sold by G. W. Short.

LODIBURG.

Allen Addison is very low with K&L eye disease.

Willie Hend Jr., is sick with malaria and not improving at all.

Mrs. Frank Clayborn has had several dangerous hemorrhages within the last ten days.

Mrs. Blaky Head is very low with consumption.

Mrs. John Ait is very low with consumption and not expected to live long.

Rev. D. Dowden preached at Walnut Grove Church Saturday and Sunday, to a fair congregation, considering the weather.

The farmers in this section are very tough headed, with their crops. They are rushing things now a winking advantage of the good weather.

Have your job work done at this office in the latest designs and lowest prices.

S. T. MOORE &amp; CO., CARPETS.

YES, weigh this over carefully in your mind. Take into consideration our vast experience, our superior advantages over the regular dealer, and every man, woman or child who buys a dollar's worth gets the benefit of (to be modest and say the least) thirty-three and one-third per cent.

JUST THINK OF IT! We can sell you the very best Moquet for the same money you have to pay for a cheap Body Brussels; the finest Body Brussels at a Tapestry Brussels price; and the very finest Tapestry for what you have been paying for an ordinary Ingrain Carpet. This we can do, and are doing every day. A visit to our Rug Department is a treat in itself; amply repaying the critic, the sightseer and the buyer. The beautiful combinations of colors, styles and designs are equalled only by the art galleries of Europe. There is life in it, as our cut indicates.
